Two Sources being compared and contrasted:

I. Introduction
   A. Exordium
   B. Thesis: ________________________________
      ________________________________
   C. Key points/Direction/Plan (paragraph topics—you should have at least five)
      1. ________________________________
      2. ________________________________
      3. ________________________________
      4. ________________________________
      5. ________________________________, etc.

II. Body
   A. (Same as I.C.1.) ________________________________
   B. (Same as I.C.2.) ________________________________
   C. (Same as I.C.3.) ________________________________
   D. (Same as I.C.4.) ________________________________
   E. (Same as I.C.5.) ________________________________, etc.

III. Conclusion
   A. Transitional Statement
   B. Restate Thesis (in other words): ________________________________
      ________________________________
      ________________________________
      ________________________________
   C. Summary of key points/direction
   D. Comment on future/lessons/significance